

Heritage Viola Concert

with Robert Harris, viola

Thursday 16 May 11 am

The National Trust ACT, in collaboration with St John's Anglican Church, Reid, presents a concert of celebratory and contemplative music in this historic Canberra setting.

Robert Harris, a perennial visiting Guest Principal Viola for the Canberra Symphony Orchestra, will perform music spanning three hundred years – J.S. Bach and Telemann from the Baroque (pre-dating European Australia), Schubert (from the colonial era of Gov. Lachlan Macquarie) and a multi-cultural array of world music spanning the years since Australia's federation – Armenian-American, Chinese, Jewish, Middle Eastern, Ukrainian-Australian, some Scots-American folk and Peter Sculthorpe's honouring of Indigenous Australia.

The one-hour concert will be followed by a light lunch.

Venue: St John's Church, 45 Constitution Ave, Reid, ACT

Cost: $20 for lunch and donation to National Trust-St John's Church Roof Appeal

Bookings: <https://www.trybooking.com/BBYHX>

Enquiries: events@nationaltrustact.org.au

Donations to the Roof Appeal may also be made at <https://www.givenow.com.au/stjohnsheritagefund>

